

APPRECIATION & GRATITUDE

To my family and relations, present and absent, those who came before and those who will follow – I hold each of you in the music.

Nathan – for giving your excellence, diligence and thoughtfulness to this project and me.

Brenna – for being the “big sister,” most especially in the way you honor your truths and responsibilities. You show me how to pursue things that matter.

Mom - for all of the conversations, cheering, counsel, curiosity, and deep, deep caring as I made this journey.

Dad – for your excitement for me and for sharing your writing with me while I wrote these songs.

Hesper, Matt and Peggy – for your love, support and encouragement (and for loving the people I love).

Naima and Nala – “How wonderful my life’s become in so many ways ...”

...

Many thanks to – Teresa Moses & Blackbird Revolt LLC, Jack Davis & Loonar City, Uche Iroegbu Photographic, Jazz Central Studios, Vanessa Lopez, MN State Arts Board, Connie Shaver, Wild Sound Studio and all my friends, singing mentors, collaborators and students.

Kickstarter Backers – Thank you for believing; we could not have done it without you!

Anthony Cox – for being my long-time musical mentor and friend, and for your many contributions to this project, most especially your counsel and encouragement that I make my own music.

Give Get Sistet – for the Music and the Singing and the Sisterhood. Ase!

Steven Hobert – for your musical ideas, beautiful playing and social conscientious.

Dean Magraw – for your boundless and unwavering enthusiasm for and support of my efforts to create original music.

Jake Baldwin, Dave Schmalenbeger and Peter Whitman – for the creativity, sensitivity and musicality each of you brought to this project.

Steve Kaul – for your sincere interest in and care for this project from our very first conversation. Your many talents helped me manifest the album I heard in my head.
